

The Graydon alpine pastures

The chapel: dedicated to the Immaculate Conception, it was built in 1859. Some parts of the entrance of the chapel come from the Vallée d'Aulps Abbey.

The Graydon comb: Graydon is at the foot of the Roc d'Enfer and it is protected by the cliffs of a morainic circle.

Do not miss Jeannine and Raymond Chalengon's farm where you'll be able to find real mountain cheese: tomme (milk cheese) and chevrotin (goat cheese).

CAUTION

St Jean d'Aulps cable-car is open every WEDNESDAY and SUNDAY from the 1st week of JULY to the last week of AUGUST.

This is also a cycle path,
please take care!

!! CAUTION !!
DANGEROUS IN CASE OF SNOW AND BAD WEATHER

You are walking at your own responsibility. In the mountains, storms are frequent, so listen to the weather forecast before setting off. Wear walking shoes, warm clothes and waterproofs, and take a walker's map. Never go walking alone, and always tell someone of your planed route. Respect nature, don't leave the marked paths and bring back all your litter.

SECTION

Just before reaching Graydon turn left (1447m) and keep following the forestry track. It will lead you through an old hamlet and then through woods. At the end of the forest, the route takes the farmac road during a few meters. Then it goes back into the forest, direction "La Vallettaz d'en Bas". The path ends up at La Grande Terche road that you should go up towards the car park in 10 minutes.
